Guidelines for Submitting a Nomination – President's Award

The President's Award is conferred by the President of the State of Israel on individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the State of Israel or to humanity, through their talent, service, or in any other manner.

The object of the award is to enable the President of the State to express his appreciation and esteem to deserving individuals, and thus also to encourage men and women as well as organizations to give of their talents and efforts for the good of the State of Israel and to mend the world.

The President's Award will be conferred on a nominee who meets at least one of the following criteria:

- A. The nominee made a unique contribution to the State of Israel or to mending the world, or made a mark on society in their area of activity or in their achievements.
- B. The nominee enhanced the prestige of the State of Israel and uniquely contributed to its image in the world.
- C. The nominee serves as a model and an example of entrepreneurship, innovation, creativity and vision.

The contribution can be in the form of a single deed or may be an ongoing activity.

An advisory committee serving alongside the President of the State recommends to the President nominees worthy of receiving the President's Award.

 Any individual or organization may submit the nomination of others for receipt of the President's Award. An organization may nominate itself as a nominee with the signature of the organization's chairperson. Individuals may not nominate themselves.

Submitted nominations must include specified reasons and must be accompanied by documents substantiating the reasons for the requested nomination. The request must be accompanied by at four supporting recommendations.

Please follow the guidelines below:

1. Nominations can be submitted online on the Office of the President website at president.gov.il
2. Fill in the details on the form, including the nominator's details, the nominee's details, the reasons for the request and the details of the recommending entity, and attach (exactly) 4 recommendations.
3. Attach all request supporting documents to the form.
4. When submitting the nomination of an organization attach a nomination submission approval statement signed by the Chairperson, as well as Proper Management Approval.
5. Submission of a nomination for the President's Award is not limited in time.
6. Only the award recipients will be notified of their receipt of the Award.
